

North Carolina Decision Making Order

Reasonably Available means:

Able to be contacted without undue effort and be willing and able to act in a timely manner.

If only one member is available at a level, they are the representative. If several are available, it is majority rule.

